

Corner Boys is Robert Hunt's memoir of growing up on the mean streets of St. John's in the 1950s and '60s. This dark yet humorous coming-of-age story follows a young and mischievous boy along the sidewalks and into the backyards of a turbulent—and sometimes violent—city.

Robert Hunt, 162 pages, $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-926881-50-8

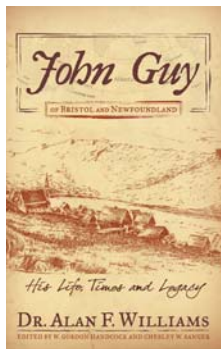

Gary Collins extensive biography of Mattie Mitchell, the man best remembered for the 1905 discovery (along with Will Canning) of the iron ore body that was eventually worked as Buchans Mines.

Gary Collins, 240 pages, $19.95
ISBN 978-1-926881-01-0

John Clarke's gripping novel follows a German secret agent whose mission is to assassinate British Prime Minister Winston Churchill during a meeting of world leaders aboard a ship in the waters off Newfoundland during WWII.

John Clarke, 185 pages, $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-897317-41-9

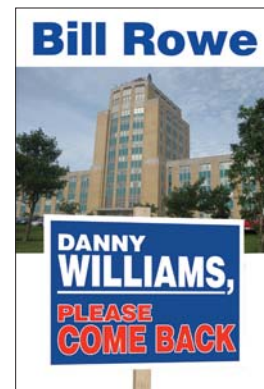

This book is the biography of one of the province's and country's most significant historical figures. It is the most authoritative source on John Guy: merchant, colonizer, Newfoundland governor, Bristol civic official and West of England landowner.

Dr. Alan F. Williams, 394 pages,
$24.00, ISBN: 978-1-897317-94-5

The world of Doyle at your fingertips!! Packed with all the information you need to know from your favorite private detective show, this is a complete compendium of all things Republic of Doyle. Compiled and edited by show writer Kerri MacDonald.

Kerri MacDonald, 224 pages
$24.95, ISBN: 978-1-926881-48-5

Bill Rowe, author of the critically acclaimed political drama, Danny Williams: The War with Ottawa, is back and ready to throw a few more punches at the local, national, and world leaders who fill our lives with endless amusement and exasperation.

Bill Rowe, 273 pages, $19.95
ISBN: 978-1-926881-18-8

Riots and Religion in Newfoundland delves into the history of conflict between our English and Irish ancestors, a controversial topic that has been overlooked, diminished, or completely ignored in many history books.

David Dawe, 244 pages, $19.95
ISBN 978-1-926881-04-1

Flanker Press

Books for 2011

www.flankerpress.com

To order, please contact:
Tiffany Cuthbert (sales) toll-free at 1-866-739-4420 ext. 22 or at sales@flankerpress.com

This collection of true stories, compiled by Clarence Vautier, explores the tragedy and hardships experienced by those who have made their living from the fishery. Many photographs and family stories paint a vivid portrait of those lost to the unforgiving sea.

Clarence Vautier, 240 pages
$19.95, ISBN 978-1-926881-46-1

Cape Race: Stories from the Coast that Sank the Titanic presents 48 stories of tragedy and heroic rescue from the sea surrounding Cape Race, Newfoundland, including the story of the magnificent liner whose sinking off that coast in 1912 was felt around the world.

Robert C. Parsons, 263 pages
$19.95, ISBN: 978-1-926881-06-5

These past few centuries, many have perished in the bitter Atlantic waters, while others have found hope among the ruins. The 30 stories within these pages span the years between 1704 and 1944.

Frank Galgay, 229 pages, $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-897317-87-7

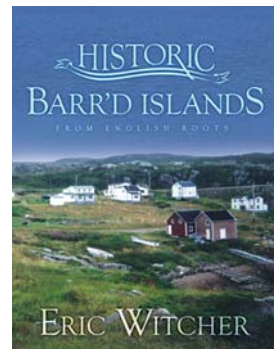

With more than 500 photos of foreign and domestic vessels, crews, ports, shipyards, and modes of processing fish at sea aboard ships that were part of Newfoundland and Labrador's collective history, The Grand Banks is a full and impartial history of the magnitude of this fishing effort.

J. P. Andrieux, 347 pages, $24.00
ISBN: 978-1-926881-41-6

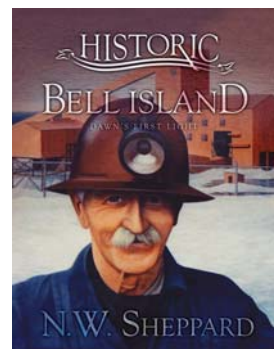

This is Greta Hussey's account of her early years on Labrador, where Newfoundland fishermen and their families set up shore fishing rooms to prosecute the inshore cod fishery.

Greta Hussey, 132 pages, $17.95
ISBN 978-1-926881-15-7

Barr'd Islands: From English Roots is a history of early English settlement in Notre Dame Bay, Newfoundland, with a focus on Barr'd Islands, a small fishing community on Fogo Island.

Eric Witcher, 288 pages, $22.00
ISBN: 978-1-926881-09-6

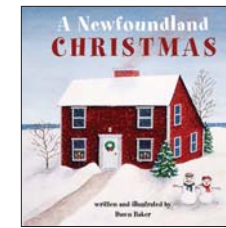

The history of Bell Island, Newfoundland, is an amazing one of a strong and courageous people who overcame the challenge of creating a community exposed to the mighty North Atlantic Ocean.

N. W. Sheppard, 123 pages, $18.00
ISBN: 978-1-926881-36-2

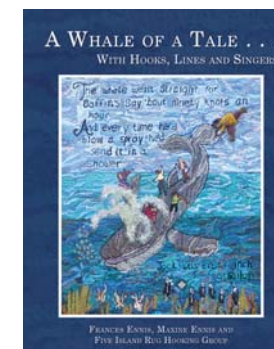

The story of Bay Roberts is one of an ordinary people who lived through a turbulent and extraordinary past. Adventure, murder, religious strife, inventions, successful local newspapers, and enterprise make up this collective history of a thriving Newfoundland community.

Michael F. Flynn, 242 pages, $22.00
ISBN: 978-1-926881-11-9

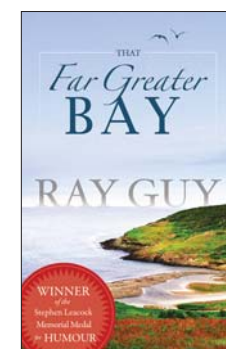

Sarah and her brother, Michael, are not happy when they learn that they will be going down home for Christmas. But when they see exactly what a Newfoundland Christmas has to offer, they quickly change their minds!

Dawn Baker, 21 pages, $9.95
ISBN: 978-1-926881-45-4

In A Whale of a Tale . . . With Hooks, Lines and Singers, members of the Five Island Rug Hooking Group have combined their expertise in design, colour, texture and rug hooking techniques with the power of song.

Frances Ennis, Maxine Ennis and
Five Island Rug Hooking Group
76 pages, $21.95
ISBN: 978-1-926881-38-6

That Far Greater Bay is the Stephen Leacock Memorial Medal winning collection (1977) of Ray Guy's best and most vitriolic articles that have appeared in newspapers and magazines countrywide.

Ray Guy, 176 pages, $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-897317-74-7

The unique character of Newfoundland and Labrador comes shining through in this treasury of shared experiences collected by retired teacher Anne Galway, who has seen the value of the unique and fascinating education that can be gained through the hole in the ceiling.

Anne Galway, 182 pages, $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-926881-43-0